Air Routing's Datalink™

Air Routing International® is proud to introduce a new, comprehensive service that combines essential in-flight communication technology, powerful online tools and resources all in a single-source solution!

Air Routing's Datalink is truly a unique product that supports multiple avionics platforms and mixed fleets. By combining Air Routing's new online flight planning system and Flight Manager™, you can now manage everything with a single product.

Did you know Air Routing offers other essential services like Runway Analysis, GPS RAIM Prediction, Online Trip Quotes™, and Fuel Stop Analyzer™? These services, combined with Datalink, will support each and every flight.

To learn more about Air Routing's Datalink, please contact your Air Routing Account Manager or visit our website at www.AirRouting.com.
