FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Air Routing International Announces Online International Trip Quotes™ Service to Air Routing Clientele

Online Trip Quotes Provides ARI Customers an Accurate and Competitive Service That Includes Third Party Charges

Houston, TX. May 2009. Air Routing International's customers now enjoy a new online service called Trip Quotes. Trip Quotes is an industry changing product that enables both charter operations and flight departments to quickly receive a comprehensive trip quote with instant and accurate results. This online international trip quote service provides flight departments the ability to swiftly determine Air Routing arrangement fees, international third party charges, and estimated fuel costs before planning a trip, 24/7/365.

Another great aspect of this service is the release of the new service called Fuel Stop Analyzer™. The Fuel Stop Analyzer plots a great circle route and locates airports along the path for tech stops. Additionally, it compares the fuel prices at each location and highlights preferred airports and locations the client stopped at in the past.

"Air Routing's Trip Quotes provides price estimates to our customers", says Nathan Liverman with Million Air Dallas. "The ability to better determine what costs will be incurred at particular international locations is essential to making the sale."
