FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Air Routing International Joins Forces with Lufthansa Bombardier Aviation Services

New Partnership Offers Clients a One-Stop-Shop Solution

Houston, TX. December 2008. Corporate flight handling company, Air Routing International (ARI) recently entered into an agreement with Berlin-based Lufthansa Bombardier Aviation Services (LBAS) to offer clients a one-stop-shop solution by providing operational services as well as maintenance and technical support services, all through Air Routing's Card Services™ system.

The agreement with Air Routing Card Services™ and Lufthansa Bombardier Aviation Services will enable those clients operating Bombardier Aircrafts to have access to all technical support services on credit at LBAS' MRO facility located in Berlin, Germany for qualified cardholders.

"Operators have always been looking for ways to consolidate the invoices of their operations" says Tim Maystrik, Vice President of Air Routing International, LP. "Now they can not only put all their trip support services through the Air Routing card (handling charges, fuel, air navigation fees) but also their maintenance services."

About Lufthansa Bombardier Aviation Services (LBAS)

Lufthansa Bombardier Aviation Services GmbH (LBAS) was founded in 1997 as a joint venture by Lufthansa Technik AG and aircraft manufacturer Bombardier Aerospace. LBAS has therefore become an important part of Lufthansa Technik's service network for airliners and business jets. In addition, LBAS is a central base for Bombardier aircraft, extending the reach of the Bombardier Business Aviation Services network outside the USA. www.lbas.de
